Mr. Dhir, on instructions from Mr. Sarabjit, AIG, Litigation, submits that in order to address the grievance raised by the petitioners in the bunch of these writ petitions, the respondent-department has taken a conscious decision to grant an opportunity of personal hearing to each of the petitioners and thereafter take objective decision strictly in accordance with the public notice dated 17.08.2021 and as per law. The said proposal is acceptable to the counsels representing the petitioners.

In view of the above, all the petitioners are granted liberty to represent before Chairperson Central Recruitment Board on or before 06.05.2023. On getting such representations, the schedule w.r.t. the hearing would be published by the Recruitment Board on their website by 08.05.2023 specifying the date and time slot on which the candidate is required to appear before the Board. Such exercise would be completed by 12.05.2023. Thereafter necessary orders adjudicating upon the grievance raised by the petitioners would be passed on or before 20.05.2023. The orders will also be published on website and will not be served personally to the candidates. Counsel representing the petitioners have consented to this arrangement. The orders passed be produced on the next date of hearing i.e. 24.05.2023.

To be heard with CWP-25807-2022.

A photocopy of this order be placed on the files of other connected cases.
